Scherer, general agent of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway, Postmaster-General Hitchcock, in a report made to the Senate yesterday, says that under the law he does not think that Mr. Scherer should receive more than $500 for his services. Some time ago a bill was introduced in Congress to pay Mr. Scherer $5.500. The Senate wanted information, it turned to the Postmaster-General, who declines to recommend payment above that generally provided for in such cases.

Immediately agen the receipt of the report of the post-office robbery an investigation was begun by post-office inspectors, who were ably assisted by Mr. Scherer Cupon his suggestion it was ascertained that a few days before the robbery a man elaiming to represent a New York novelty house, had rented a sample room in the Alhambra Hotel, at Eighth and Franklin Streets. A fall description of the man who rented the room was obtained from the hotel manager, and upon breaking open the door of the room it was found that all entrances had been carefully wired.

Trunks Traced From Hotel.

It was also learned that three trunks had been removed from this room at about 4 o'clock on the morning of March 23, 1916, by a driver, and checked to Washington, With this information, arrangements were made with Mr. Scherer for the use of Westleing In Lad.
